For Immediate Release

Washington, DC - Frontiers of Freedom Institute founder and chairman U.S. Senator Malcolm Wallop (ret.) today issued the following statement on the death of longtime friend U.S. Senator Craig Thomas:

“With the passing of U.S. Senator Craig Thomas, Wyoming and the entire nation lost a man of uncommon loyalty and decency. I knew Craig Thomas much of my life and count him as a friend. Through the years, he has proven himself to be as good as his word. D.C. is a town that all too often brings out the cold and calculating side of people and where many say that you can’t take friendship personally. Craig Thomas was the exception. He was true and loyal to his friends and his principles. He represented Wyoming well in part because he was the embodiment of the Wyoming spirit. Craig never let Washington take the cowboy or the rancher from his soul. He was a Marine and with that toughness and with that can-do attitude he served Wyoming and this great nation with distinction. We are all better off for his service. I was proud to count Craig as friend and proud of what he has done to further America’s great legacy. Craig Thomas will be missed by his family, his many friends, and by a grateful nation. I will miss an old friend of uncommon qualities."
